Electronic deposit of PhD thesis

Personal declaration of certification and declaration in “lieu of affidavit” submitted due to articles 46 and 47 of Presidential Decree 445 dated 28/12/2000 and subsequent amendments.

The undersigned: _____

Student number: _____

Author of the PhD thesis entitled:

PhD series: _____

Year: _____

Type of PhD: School / Course / International / Co-tutoring (specify):

in order to deposit the digital version of the PhD thesis in the University archive Padua@research, as allowed under the University rules relating to PhD degrees, conscious of the fact that false declarations are punishable under Presidential Degree n° 445/2000 by criminal penalties and forfeiture of benefits (articles 76 and 75),

Declares

- to make private and exclusive use of the personal login used to access the Padua@research electronic archive and to deposit the PhD thesis in digital format;
- that the content of the thesis — text, images, photographs, tables or other constituent parts — neither will infringe copyright in any way, nor will fail any obligation to safeguard the moral or economic rights of other authors or other interested parties;
- that the final (post-evaluation) version of the thesis submitted in Uniweb is identical in every respect to the thesis that will be deposited in the University's electronic archive Padua@research.

Agrees

- that Padua@research may transfer the work to any medium and convert it to whatever format, for the purpose of ensuring its safe and proper storage over time. Padua@research guarantees in turn that no changes will be made to the content or to the structure of the work;
- that Padua@research may reproduce the work, making at least one further copy for the purposes of security, backup and storage.

Understands

- that the University is duty-bound, under the requirements of Ministerial Decree n° 224 of 30 April 1999, article 6 para 11, to ensure that a copy of the final thesis is deposited in the Central National Libraries of Rome and Florence, pursuant to and in accordance with Law n° 106 of 15 April 2004 and the relative Implementing Regulation (Presidential Decree n° 252 of 3 May 2006);
- that authors who deposit their PhD thesis in Padua@research institutional archive retain all moral and economic rights thereon, under current statutory regulation 633/1941 and subsequent amendments and additions.

Period of “restricted access” (“embargo”) on the thesis*

The undersigned: _____

DOES NOT authorize the University to publish on an “open access” basis the full text of the thesis deposited in the institutional archive Padua@research, for the following reason:

- Patent (embargo: max. 6 months). (Please fill in the details form with the date of the patent request. You must submit the patent request before the thesis discussion).
- Commercially-sensitive content (embargo: max 3 years) (If you signed an agreement of non-disclosure with outside organizations or private businesses that have been parties in the research. Please attach the agreement text).
- Professional secrecy, for project protection (embargo: max. 3 years).
- Research priorities (usually for research teams) (embargo: max. 3 years).
- Publication issues (embargo: max. 18 months). (Please attach the contract with the publisher or an agreement text) and declares that the embargo end date that will be stated at the time of depositing in Padua@research and indicated in the deposit receipt is the following (YYYY-MM-DD):

OR:

ASKS for a PERMANENT embargo, for the following reason:

- Copyright problems: the publication of part of the thesis content — text, images in high resolution, photographs, tables... — has not been authorized, so the open access publication may infringe copyright or economic rights of other authors or other interested parties.
- Public security issues: to protect places, objects or installations from any risk. (You must fill in the details form with all data needed to check the risk).
- Privacy violation: the thesis contains sensitive data which diffusion has not been authorized, so the publication may infringe moral rights of interested parties.
